University of Minnesota policy states that a student on academic suspension will not be eligible to register for a minimum of one academic year. After a year away you are able to appeal; however, reinstatement is not guaranteed. If you plan to appeal prior to one year away, you must have extenuating circumstances with supporting documentation. Official notification of the decision will be emailed to the email address given above. Students who are reinstated will be readmitted on probation and must meet with an academic advisor prior to registering for courses.

Instructions  You must include the following with your petition:

□ U of M unofficial (free) transcript available at onestop.umn.edu or in 333 Science Teaching & Student Services.

□ APAS (printer-friendly version) available at onestop.umn.edu

□ Unofficial transcripts from all institutions you attended, if any, during your suspension

□ The Medical Supplement form should be used, if applicable, to document a medical or disability condition. The Medical Supplement form is available at cse.umn.edu/advising.

□ Write a complete statement explaining your request for readmission. You must describe the barriers that prevented your success, explain in detail your plan for improvement, and include a list of courses you plan to take the semester you wish to return.

□ Readmission is not guaranteed and only those students who demonstrate that they have given careful consideration to how they have and/or will change their behaviors or circumstances will be considered.
